INTRODUCTION

The enlightenment from the Actual God is the revelation of a set of well defined teachings which mankind must follow to return to His Paradise of Heaven. These unique teachings, revealed directly by the Actual God, form the religion of the Actual God – the Actual Creator.

These teachings are timeless in their validity, framed as they were for mankind when we were created innocent and sinless.

This sensational moral and religious code of conduct, encompassing all aspects of existence, if adhered to and followed by mankind, would also result in eternal peace, happiness and harmony here on earth, without any suffering, as it defines the ideal lifestyle in complete accordance with the laws of the creation.

The enlightenment from the Actual God explains that suffering arises from a single mistake that you committed and it shows you the way to rectify this error, eliminate suffering eternally, and regain eternal salvation in the Paradise of Heaven.

The religion of the Actual God escorts you safely to the eternal Paradise of Heaven by cautioning you against the evil forces that would lead you astray from the path of the Actual God and lure you toward eternal ruin.

The religion of the Actual God highlights the deeds that uplift destiny and those that are harmful. So following this religion will lead you to incorporate the divine ideals ordained for all mankind, so that you can condition and perfect yourself.

As such, it is full of instructions that bring smiles of happiness and joy, and devoid of hateful vices, oppressive laws and restrictions that only bring suffering. Indeed, your divine instincts and intuitions would tell you that the very idea of the Actual God is synonymous with happiness and bliss.

Hence, the religion of the Actual God is most rational, and easily distinguished in a diverse multi-religious environment through logical reasoning alone.

The enlightenment from the Actual God can be revealed directly to any individual who seeks it, if that individual qualifies for it by way of achievement of a certain very high level of sacrifices, prayers and penance, directly in honor of the Actual God.

Enlightenment is only given to those who seek it in this way and deserve it – the Actual God does not bestow it arbitrarily or for His Own motives, nor does He periodically send envoys.

In bestowing His enlightenment, the Actual God maintains no discrimination or difference between any two individuals, regardless of their past deeds, or even their past religious status, provided that they pray only to the Actual God directly and reach the level of sacrifices qualifying them for the revelation.

Whoever succeeds in procuring enlightenment from the Actual God thus, would find that exactly the same divine teachings are revealed to everyone who has worshipped the Actual God directly in the correct way, as all are equal before Him.

The notion that different seekers obtain different or conflicting teachings for entering the Paradise of Heaven of the Actual God is incorrect.

INTRODUCTION

So the possibility of two different prophets preaching contradictory teachings and both being correct in leading mankind to the Paradise of Heaven of the Actual God simply does not arise.

The enlightenment compiled in this book commenced in August 1984, when the first teachings of the Actual God were suddenly revealed to me while I was praying and fasting.

The enlightenment from the Actual God was revealed by means of a connection of the senses of the Actual God with mine. Since the senses of the Actual God are receptive throughout the entire creation, beyond all boundaries, I was able to see, hear and feel throughout all creation. It was as if the Actual God had extended me divine senses during the short period of this junction.

The first words emanating from the Actual God stated that:

“When you worship God, you cannot see Him.”

It was then emphasized that the only correct mode of worship leading to Heaven is that in which all prayers and sacrifices are offered directly to the Actual God without extending reverence to any imaginary, virtual or physical form, be it dead, alive or inanimate. All other modes of worship were very distinctly presented as being devilish. They were shown to nurture the evil objective of snatching mankind away from the Actual God eternally, by deceiving them into believing these other modes of worship to be passages to Heaven.

It was explained that any worship offered to an entity that can be seen with the eyes, perceived with the senses, or constructed in the mind, no matter how devoutly undertaken, is under no circumstances worship of the Actual God. This is an extremely rigid law of religion and knows no exception.

Subsequently, over the years, the divine enlightenment from the Actual God has continued to reveal a complement of religious teachings, which I have recorded in original form. Several teachings still await compilation. Further revelations will ensue, God willing, and will be published accordingly.
